

Pippa Aston

A third year Harper & Keele Veterinary School student, with a passion for large animal practice and a keen interest in breeding and genetics. Growing up on a small holding and being an avid member of Pony Club lead to a fascination with this sector, and a strong desire to take every opportunity available to further my knowledge, which lead me to the subject of this poster. Away from university my time is spent showjumping, and hiking with my dog.